Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 78: March 30, 1916 Each man who has stepped aside from the beaten track to establish a new church, has done so wholeheartedly, with a desire to benefit his fellowmen, and who shall say he has failed? If a man learns but one great truth during his lifetime, and lives up to the same with every fibre of his being, he is of some use to the human race, and paves the way for greater truths that follow, and so, little by little, throughout the centuries, truths have been sought and found, but remained in a scattered condition. One church had learnt one truth, another, another. The church known as Christian Scientists learned that faith was necessary to heal the sick (James 5: 14 The Baptists held to baptism of believers by immersion (John 3: The Church of England taught the laying on of hands for the receiving of the Holy Ghost (Acts) All that was lacking was, for all the truths from all the churches to be amalgamated into one great whole, and...
