James Through the Eyes of Paul

By Donna Hughey

Resource Publications (CA), United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .James through the Eyes of Paul is a Bible study that guides readers in examining the book of James in light of Paul s teachings on faith, perseverance, and submission. James and Paul describe complementary parts of a believer s relationship with God, and together they shed light on every Christian s responsibilities to fellow believers, to nonbelievers, and to God. Studying only one of these men s teachings can only give you part of the story--but studying them together provides a complete and honest view into the Christian walk. Each chapter is presented in a clear question-and-answer format to help Christians better understand the biblical truths behind their faith. Suitable for individuals as well as Bible study groups, James through the Eyes of Paul is an advanced study for the everyday believer. Donna Hughey has once again given us a tremendous Bible study companion, this time on the book of James. Donna does an effective and thorough job of weaving the practical advice of James with Paul s constant emphasis on salvation through faith; bringing...
